According to a Sheriff's press release, the silver Toyota Tundra pick-up truck was traveling westbound on the highway when for unknown reasons, the driver, Damion Sloan, 23, of Twentynine Palms, lost control. Robin Wright, 21, and Justin Snyder, 21, both of Twentynine Palms, were also ejected and suffered major injuries. A fourth passenger, Xavier Truckey, 19, of Twentynine Palms, was wearing a seatbelt and sustained only minor injuries. Sloan, Wright, and Snyder were taken to Desert Regional Medical Center with major injuries; Truckey was taken to Hi-Desert Medical Center as a precaution.
