Fire Destroys Vacant San Bernardino Building

Date/Time: January 16, 2021, 6:26 a.m.
Location: 1900 Block of North Del Rosa, San Bernardino
Incident: Commercial Fire

Summary: This morning at 6:26am San Bernardino County Fire (SBCoFD) crews were dispatched to a reported commercial fire in the 1900 block of North Del Rosa, San Bernardino. The building lays just North of Station 226.

Arriving crews found a well-developed fire in the vacant commercial occupancy. The building had burned multiple times, causing significant structural damage. Due to the instability, a basement and the level of involvement crews initiated a defensive attack. Crews concentrated their efforts on exposure protection of nearby businesses and vegetation. Once the fire was knocked down, crews completed a primary search, which was negative. San Bernardino Building & Safety was requested to red tag the building.

SBCoFD responded with 5 Engines, 2 Trucks, a Medic Squad, Battalion Chief and a Fire Investigator.

The cause is under investigation.
